FIREMEN WITH FLOWERS FOR GRAVES OF DEPARTED COMRADES.

FIREMEN'S GRAVES
DECORATED TODAYFlowers Spread on Mounds of 107 in District Cemeteries.

Flower-laden supply wagons today visited the graves of 107 former members of the District's fire department, and left a wreath at each as a tribute from friends and relatives and the city itself.

This is the department's annual memorial day, and nine more graves than last year were decorated, this representing the number of deaths of active and retired firemen during the past twelve months.

Following his usual custom, Chief Frank J. Wagner personally visited the graves of former Chiefs Martin Cronin, at Mount Olivet, and William T. Bell, at Glenwood.

The supply wagons, which conveyed the wreaths, left the District building at 9:30 o'clock. Privates J. M. Davis and T. P. Purcell were in charge of wagon No. 1; Private R. B. Wright and Driver A. J. Bargagli of wagon No. 2; and Privates E. J. Dwyer and G. C. Moxley of wagon No. 3.

Wagons Met by Committees. Proceeding to the various cemeteries, the wagons were met by committees which conducted the memorial rites.

Capt. J. T. Rossiter was in charge at White Marsh; Mrs. M. T. Wiles, at Alexandria; Lieut. O. C. Bassford, at Oak Hill cemetery; Private J. Sullivan, at Holy Road; Private G. Davenport, at Andrew Chapel, Va.; Private E. E. Sims, at Arlington; Driver R. J. Holmes, at Harmony, and Driver J. G. B. Key, at Woodlawn.

Linked with tributes to the memory of Washington's firemen dead were impressive appeals made last night by speakers at the joint memorial service at the Y. M. C. A., that provision be made for the dependent families of firemen who lose their lives in the service.

P. T. Moran, president of the Chamber of Commerce, presided at the joint exercises, which were attended by Chief Wagner, members of the fire department and a large number of citizens. In a plea for a more adequate pension system, Sergt. C. W. Gill, president of the Firemen's Association, declared that in the audience were wives and children who had been left unprotected by the sudden death of the heads of their families, and that while the fireman was no less subject to discipline and his calling no less hazardous and no less devoted to the public welfare than that of the soldier, a pension system had been provided for the latter, but none for the fireman.

Praises Work of Firemen. Senator Thomas Sterling of South Dakota, said that in one respect the service of the fireman was higher than that of the soldier, for the fireman never fought in an unjust or unworthy cause.

Forming a background for the stage was a large American flag, draped from a running track to the floor, while in the center of the platform stood a large flower-draped cross. In front of the cross extended a line of 107 candles, one for each deceased member of the department. As Secretary W. A. Smith read the roll call of departed members a muffled song was sounded and one by one the candles were extinguished.

Homer J. Councillor, chaplain of the association, gave the invocation and Rev. Paul A. Menzel of the Concordia Church pronounced the benediction after the audience had sung "Nearer, My God, To Thee." The musical program included vocal solos by Wilson Oliver and Mrs. E. S. Howard, a cornet solo by Arthur Whitcomb, a saxophone solo by Frank Baptista, and several other numbers by the orchestra.

FRIVOLOUS FROCKS STIR COLOGNE WOMEN'S SCORN

Would Forbid High-Heeled Shoes, Wide, Short Skirts and Other Enemy Fashions.

Correspondence of the Associated Press.

COLOGNE, May 4.—Disappointed that both personal and official pleas and warnings have had little or no effect the Women's Alliance of Cologne and thirty-five associated women's associations and organizations have petitioned the governor of the fortress to issue a decree forbidding the wearing of high-heeled shoes, wide flowing short skirts and other apparel that has been smuggled in from countries at war with Germany or that is patently a copy of foreign mode and fashion.

"It shows a lack of patriotism and is a disgrace for German women," says the petition, in part, "that many of them go about in clothing which by its striking, frivolous nature mocks the earnest sentiment that rules among the people at this time of manifold need and severe personal suffering."

The petition declares that luxury of a noticeable sort in clothing is nothing but an insult to the unfortunate, and is unworthy of the German woman at this time.

"Since all the pleas of sensible thinking people, as well as the official cautions have been without result," concludes the petition, "we ask the governor to take steps against the above-named evils."

WALK OF WANDERLUSTERS
BEGINS AT BARCROFT, VA.

Follows Route Which Includes Rock Spring and the Bailey Cross Roads.

About sixty wanderlusters went on the regular Sunday afternoon outing yesterday, the walk proper starting from Barcroft, Va. W. B. Handy was the leader.

The route was about three miles long, passing Rock Spring, where a stop was made for water. Thence across country to Bailey Cross Roads the walkers went, then following the roadway and Columbia pike until the Barcroft waterworks were reached. While inspecting the waterworks the party was caught in the storm. All found shelter, however, in an old house on the opposite side of the road. After the storm the party retraced their steps to Barcroft station, returning to the city in jitney buses.

Tomorrow an all day trip to Cupid's Bower, near Great Falls, is to be taken.

The first party is to leave on the Great Falls car from 5th and P streets northwest at 9:05, being followed by a second party from the same point at 10:15. The return is to be made on cars leaving the falls terminus at 6:06 and 7:40. W. Palmer Hall and G. A. Gambs are to lead.

Wednesday evening a walk is to be taken, led by Miss Nellie Hrosman. The start is to be made from Michigan avenue and Harewood road at 7:45 o'clock.

Next Sunday's outing is to start from Takoma Park at 2:30 p.m. under the leadership of John Boyle. Motion pictures of the hikes are to be taken at various points.

WAITE SEEKS NO APPEAL.

Asserts, in Statement, He Is Ready to Take the Punishment.

NEW YORK, May 29.—A declaration that he wishes no appeal in his behalf is contained in a statement issued from his cell in the Tombs by Dr. Arthur Warren Waite, convicted Saturday of the murder of his father-in-law, John E. Peck of Grand Rapids.

"I am satisfied with the verdict," he said, "and don't want any appeal made by me. I don't want (Waite's chief counsel) or any one else. I am willing to take the punishment for my ill deeds, and the quicker that punishment comes the better."

Defendant Cartage Club Members

Take Stand in Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 29.—D. F. Bevington, W. W. Toot and R. M. Andrews, defendant members of the Cleveland Cartage Club's grievance committee, took the stand in their own defense in their trial here today for blackmail. They denied that they had used threats to collect a fund of $7,000 from members of the club, who are teamsters and moving contractors. They admitted collecting the money which they said was to be given to George King, business agent of the teamsters' union, for negotiating a new agreement between the employers and the union which was to be more favorable to the contractor.

The state is trying to prove that threats were used to get certain contractors to contribute to the fund and that strikes were called when these contractors refused to pay.
